LAST OF JUNIOR COUNCIL LECTURES TO BE
GIVEN AT MUSEUM OCTOBER 28, 8:15 p.m.

The last of the Junior Council lectures on The Classical Tradition will be given by Mr. Edward B. Henning, Curator of Contemporary Art at The Cleveland Museum of Art, on Wednesday, October 28 at 8:15 p.m. in the Museum's auditorium. Mr. Henning will discuss CLASSICISM AND MODERN ART. This lecture (as well as the four previous) relates directly to the exhibition NEO-CLASSICISM: STYLE AND MOTIF, which closes Sunday, November 1.

Mr. Henning earned his B.S. and M.A. at Western Reserve University, graduated from The Cleveland Institute of Art and studied at the Academy Julian in Paris. He instructed art classes and studied stained glass production methods before joining the staff of The Cleveland Museum of Art where he is now, in addition to curatorial duties, Assistant to the Director. He also currently teaches classes in Aesthetics at The Cleveland Institute of Art. His publications include numerous articles and reviews and the book-catalog PATHS OF ABSTRACT ART.
